

TABLE OF CONTENTS

OF

VOLUME XXXIII.

- No. 1. To HENRY HUNT, Esq. of Middleton in the county of Southampton.—Letter I. On the Intrigues of the Junto in Westminster for making that noble-spirited City a Rotten Borough.
- No. 2. A Letter to a Friend in Lancashire. On the Spy System mixed with the Dragooning System.—On Capt. Raynes's Confessions relative to the Bribery and Perjury employed by Generals Maitland and Acland. On the State of the Paper-Money.—On the predictions of Mr. PAINE and myself.
- No. 3. To Henry Hunt, Esq. Letter II. On the scheme for putting forward Mr. Roger O'Connor as a Member for Westminster.—On the Questions to be put to Sir Francis Burdett at the next Election.
- No. 4. Letter II. To MAJOR CARTWRIGHT. On some of the subjects of his Letters to Sir Francis Burdett and the Lord Mayor, and on the base conduct of the Borough-mongers, with regard to Spanish America.—POSTSCRIPT, on various subjects.
- No. 5. An Abstract of Major CARTWRIGHT's Bill, entitled "An Act for securing the Rights and Liberties of the Nation, by a Constitutional Representation of the Commons in Parliament, and Parliaments of a Constitutional Continuance."
- No. 6. To the Honourable the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled The Petition of WILLIAM COBBETT of Botley, in the County of Hants, now residing at North Hampstead, in the State of New York. Dated November 20, 1817.
- No. 7. To MAJOR CARTWRIGHT.—Letter III. On the measures of the United States, and on the conduct of the Borough-mongers, with regard to Spanish America.
- No. 8. To Major Cartwright.—Letter IV. On the Proceedings, which have just taken place in the Congress relative to Spanish America.—A Letter to L. H. SCIPION, Count Du ROURE, the French Editor of numerous Editions of Mr. COBBETT's Grammar, entitled "Le Maître Anglois." His base conduct towards the Author.
- No. 9. To Major Cartwright.—Letter V. On the attempts, which some Persons are making, in the United States, to prevent the Congress from acting with Justice and Humanity towards the Spanish Colonies.
- No. 10. To Major Cartwright.—Letter VI. The release of the eleven English Officers at Philadelphia.—The Prospects of Freedom in South America.—Sir Francis Burdett in Ireland.
- No. 11. To the ELECTORS of WESTMINSTER. On the importance of their making a proper choice at the next Election of Members to serve in Parliament.
- No. 12. On the Absolute Sway of the Great Seat-Owners over King, Ministers, and People.—Title Page and Table of Contents of VOL. XXXII.
- No. 13. LETTER A. To the Freemen of the City of COVENTRY.—On the Subject of Englishmen's Birthright; on that of Assassination; on that of the Right to Resist Oppression; on that of Gentler Means.—Postscript, on various subjects.

- No. 14. To Henry Hunt, Esq. Letter III. On the Terrible Scenes exhibited at DERBY in October and November, 1817; and particularly on the conduct of LAWYER CROSS of Manchester.—Postscript, on various subjects.—Notice to Correspondents in England.
- No. 15. LETTER B. To the Freemen of the City of COVENTRY. Mr. Cobbett offers himself as a Member for that City.—His Motives for making this offer.—Unfitness, Inefficiency, and Perfidy of "The Regiment."
- No. 16. To Henry Hunt, Esq. Letter IV. On the DERBY Beheadings. STEWART co-operates with CROSS. On the Scheme to silence the Press altogether. On the Bow-string system. Mrs. Brandreth an object of national care. On the Death of the Princess Charlotte. New York Consul and Addresses. Postscript, on various subjects.
- No. 17. LETTER C. To the Freemen of COVENTRY. On the profound Ignorance of those who have had the management of the Nation's Affairs for many years past. LETTER I. To Messrs. Benbow, Evans, Sen. Evans, Jun. John Roberts, John Smith, Francis Ward, John Jonson, John Knight, Samuel Brown, John Bagnelly, and the rest of those who have acted the same truly noble part.
- No. 18. To the Honourable the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled. The Petition of WILLIAM COBBETT, dated March 7, 1818. Depositions of William Stevens, late of Nottingham, and Charles Pendrill, late of Newgate Street, London, sworn before the Mayor of Philadelphia.—Letter from Wm. OGDEN.
- No. 19. LETTER II. To Messrs. BENBOW, EVANS, Sen. EVANS, Jun. and the rest of those who have acted the same noble part. Mr. HUNT's Address to the Electors of Westminster.
- No. 20. To the Electors of Westminster. Letter II. On the State of the Press in England.—On the Projects of the Borough-Usurpers for destroying the Press and Juries in England.—On the Trials of Mr. HONE.—On the choice of a Member, or Members, at the next Election for Westminster.
- No. 21. To the Honourable the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled. The Petition of WILLIAM COBBETT, dated March 24, 1818.
- No. 22. Report of the Proceedings at a Meeting of the Freemen of Coventry, held at the Eagle Tavern, City Road, June 9, 1818.—An Essay on the Corruption of the English Press.
- No. 23. LETTER III. To Messrs. BENBOW, EVANS, Sen. EVANS, Jun. and the rest of those who have acted the same noble part.—Postscript; on several Works preparing by Mr. COBBETT. Remarks by the Publisher on the misrepresentations of the Newspapers, and on the Conduct of Mr. WOOLER.